C. Motion to approve the Minutes of July 17, 2018 by Nicholas Rawcliff.
Seconded by Lisa Weih

D. TREASURER'S REPORT:
Balance of $1,280.00 less outstanding bills from survey will leave us in a deficit position.

E. SOCIAL MEDIA REPORT - George Otty - The FB page has 763 likes and 789 followers. There was an upsurge in the spring due to the survey and the last couple weeks due to the election. Will post link to All Candidates Township page.

F. BUSINESS ARISING FROM MINUTES:

Survey 2018 - Over 500 participated, every year it has increased. There are 3800 residents, so this is over 10%. The questions have been inputed into a Google program and awaiting to put into a presentation package. A subcommittee will be formed. If anyone is interested, let Andy know.

Truck Route - Upcoming meeting on Oct. 4th. Frank Brannen will follow up. Hopefully we'll have some results in next few months.

All Candidate's Forum - All Candidates Meeting is Thurs. Oct. 4th at the Hall. Both the BIA and FLCA has stepped back due to both groups having a Board Member running in election. Martina Boyd (A Fort Langley PAC member/resident/lawyer will moderate, with Karen Zukas providing support. They are in touch with Willoughby Association to see how their forum will be run. We will include Trustees. So far 1 mayor, 11 council and 5 trustees have responded. Trustees will be 6:30 to 7:30. Council/Mayor from 8:00 to 9:30. Networking 9:30 to 10:00pm. Live streaming to the Fort Langley Improvement Society FB page by All in One Productions. A donation to the Food Bank is encouraged.

Society Act Update: Filed with the Registrar by end of November. Define the membership roster.

G. NEW BUSINESS:

Heritage Property Protection Bylaw - Sept. 17th at TOL meeting.

Neighbourhood House - Some interest in forming outreach programs in the community (Seniors, After school) to build a better community and allow people to come together.

H. OPEN DISCUSSIONS:

TOL Waterfront Development - Still in infancy stage.

Mavis/Glover intersection - Constant irritation & dangerous. There were funds put aside 3 years ago. The Department of Transport and CN got involved. Railway not moving and other issues to deal with.

96th & Glover intersection

Train Horns

Added Note: There should be a public place to tie up boats if people come to visit Fort Langley by boat

I. MEETING ADJOURNED at 8:19 - Motion by Lisa Weih, Seconded by Brigitte Seib. All in Favour.
Next meeting on Tuesday, October 16th, 2018
